Assembly Hall .- Mr. John D. Redford was complimented by the attendance of a large, select, and most appreciative audience on the occasion of his benefit at Assembly Hall last night. Misses Reinhardt and Brandt and Messrs. Redford and Grant each sang solos and were enthusiastically encored. Mr. Wheat gave one of his best piano solos and yielded to a persistent call to repeat it. The quartette "Good Night," from Mar-tha, sung by Misses Brandt and Reinhardt and Messrs, Redford and Grant, with orchestral accompaniment, was rendered in artistic style, and closed the evening's entertainment. The programme presented the rare merit of brevity, few and excellent singers, and choice selections of music.
